In addition, our turnkey solutions business has gained significant traction, allowing us to provide end-to-end infrastructure readiness for modern workspaces.

We remain committed to delivering sustainable value to our stakeholders. In line with this commitment, the Board has recommended a Final dividend at 10% for the Financial Year 2024-25, reflecting our strong financial performance and confidence in the Company's future.

Looking ahead, we see immense opportunities in the facility management sector. The increasing focus on sustainability, energy efficiency, and smart building solutions is reshaping the industry. MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

Your Directors have pleasure in presenting the management discussion and analysis report for the year ended on March 31, 2026.

The facility management (FM) business in India is shifting from a low value “housekeeping” function into a strategic, technology driven service that supports corporate efficiency, occupant experience, and sustainability. Growth is being driven mainly by commercial real estate expansion, outsourcing of non-core operations, and rising regulatory and ESG expectations.

Below is a structured management and discussion style analysis of the FM business in India, tailored for a business or investment readiness context.

1. Market size and growth

- The Indian facility management services market is forecast to grow by around USD 13.1 billion at a CAGR of about 9.3% from 2025 to 2030, driven largely by commercial real estate and industrial parks.
- Other reports estimate the broader FM market in India at roughly USD 2.8–5.5 billion in 2025, with projected growth to over USD 7–130 billion by 2031–2034, depending on whether the definition includes only services or also integrated solutions and software.

This double digit growth trajectory suggests strong upside for professional FM providers, especially in integrated and outcome based models.

2. Key drivers of demand

- Commercial real estate expansion: Growth of office parks, malls, data centres, GCCs, and logistics hubs is increasing demand for structured housekeeping, security, HVAC, and space management services.
- Outsourcing of non core functions: Companies are increasingly outsourcing FM to focus on core operations and reduce overhead; studies note potential OPEX savings of up to 10–15% through professional FM.
- Regulatory and ESG pressures:
- Compliance with National Building Code, fire safety norms, and Bureau of Energy Efficiency (BEE) standards pushes owners to adopt professional FM.
- Green building certification (e.g., IGBC) and ESG linked lending are encouraging energy efficient and sustainable operations.

These factors are pushing FM from a “cost centre” to a risk mitigation and value creation function.

3. Service mix and business segments

FM in India is typically split into:

- Soft services: Housekeeping, security, reception, landscaping, pest control, etc.
- Hard services: HVAC, electrical and mechanical maintenance, lifts, fire safety systems, energy management, and building automation.

Recent trends show:

- Integrated facility management (IFM) rising in importance, where one vendor manages multiple services under a single contract, improving coordination and accountability.
- Hard services growing faster than soft services, driven by regulatory compliance and energy saving retrofits (e.g., chiller replacement, VFDs, smart meters).
- Industrial and process facilities (factories, semiconductor fabs, automotive plants) now contribute a large share of FM revenue, due to stringent uptime and safety requirements.

From a management perspective, IFM and hard service contracts tend to have higher margins, longer tenures, and stickier client relationships.

4. Competitive and operational challenges

- Fragmented market and low barrier entry: Many small players offer basic housekeeping or security, keeping pricing highly competitive and squeezing margins.
- Labor and compliance risk: FM is labor intensive and subject to complex labor laws, wage regulations, and social security requirements, which raise compliance cost and operational complexity.
- Skill and quality gaps: Studies on FM professionals in India note variable skill levels and gaps in structured maintenance planning, digital tools, and customer experience orientation.

- Technology adoption lag: Many owners still rely on manual registers; only a subset are adopting IWMS, CMMS, IoT based predictive maintenance, and cloud based platforms.

For management, this implies a strategic choice between low cost, high volume playbooks (soft services, low margin contracts) and high value, technology driven playbooks (IFM, hard services, smart building operations).

5. Technology, digitalization, and ESG

- Smart building technologies: Use of IoT sensors, predictive maintenance, automated lighting and HVAC control, and energy monitoring dashboards is growing, especially in large commercial campuses and data centres.
- Cloud and software platforms: Cloud based FM platforms now hold over 50% share of the software segment, enabling real time monitoring, work order tracking, and analytics across multiple sites.
- ESG and sustainability focus:
- Waste management, water recycling, energy efficiency retrofits, and circular economy practices are becoming part of FM scope.
- Green building certifications are creating a “premium” service tier where FM providers can differentiate via sustainability reporting and performance linked contracts.

For FM firms, this translates into opportunities to move from transactional contracts to performance based and outcome based contracts (e.g., guaranteed energy savings, uptime guarantees).

6. Regional and client mix dynamics

- Commercial segment dominates today, accounting for roughly 60% or more of FM demand, especially in metros and Tier 1 cities.
- Industrial, healthcare, hospitality, and infra hubs (airports, metro, logistics parks) are identified as high growth verticals.
- Tier 2 and Tier 3 cities are emerging as growth frontiers, with rising organized retail, office parks, and industrial clusters, but clients here often negotiate on price more aggressively.

Management strategy therefore often involves:

- Starting with metro centric, high value clients (office parks, data centres, hospitals) to build a technology and service quality brand.
- Later expanding into Tier 2/3 markets through standardized SOPs, digital tools, and multi site platforms.

7. Strategic implications for FM business management

For an FM company in India, the following themes are central to management discussion:

- Shift from cost to value: Move beyond “cheapest vendor” positioning by bundling technology, SLA guarantees, and KPI driven reporting (energy, downtime, cleanliness scores).
- Investment in technology and data: Build or adopt CMMS, mobile work order systems, and analytics dashboards to improve utilization, reduce downtime, and justify higher value contracts.
- Upskilling and retention: Develop structured training, certification paths, and career ladders for technicians and supervisors to reduce attrition and improve service consistency.
- Regulatory hygiene and ESG alignment: Stay ahead of upcoming changes in building codes, fire safety norms, and ESG disclosure requirements (e.g., BRSR linked metrics) to position FM as an ESG enabler.
- M&A and partnerships: Given the fragmented market, consolidation via acquisitions or partnerships with specialty vendors (energy saving solutions, security tech, etc.) can accelerate capability building.

If you tell me whether you want this adapted as a board level MD&A section for a listed FM company, a startup business plan, or a project specific discussion for Chennai or South India, I can tailor the language, structure, and metrics accordingly.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India;

- a) In the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as on 31st day of March 2026;
- b) In the case of the Statement of Profit and Loss, the Profit for the year ended on that date;
- c) In the case of cash flow statement, for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the standalone Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone financials' statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone financials statements as whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Other Information

The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Company's annual report, but does not include the financial statements and auditor's report(s) thereon. The Company's annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report. Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position and financial performance of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, the Board of Directors is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, We are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report.

However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure – A to the Independent Auditors’ Report

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”)

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Rithwik Facility Management Services Limited as on 31st day of March 2026 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management’s Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company’s management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (‘ICAI’). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors’ Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that

1. Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
2. provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and
3. Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects except for the matter discussion in additional note para, an internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March 2026, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.
